ADOREMUS A day of Eucharistic Pilgrimage for the Archdiocese to the Cathedral will be taking place on Saturday 21 September at 9am until 6pm. In advance of the Jubilee Year celebration of this Year of Prayer, we will be offering confessions, a time of adoration of the Eucharist, a Eucharistic Procession with part of the ‘north end’ Family of Parishes. For it means not just doing their own thing but sharing resources with their neighbouring parishes. Collaboration is often better to do things together. Over the next few months, there will be different events taking place here in the north end family which we are encouraged to take part in. In July, for instance, there will be a series of special masses for peace. Details in the next newsletter
